Riles Charges 'Smear' Tactics

SACRAMENTO - Wilson C. Riles, candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, said last week that the whole question of whether he was or was not close to being chosen United States Commissioner of Education in 1969--as raised by Dr. Max Rafferty--is taypical of the Rafferty style of smear and innuendo. Riles declared that the fact that he was considered a top contender for the post was thoroughly documented and reported by responsible reporters, both in Washington and in California.

Seven Students Are Sentenced

BAMBERG, S.C. - Seven black students accused of "common law rioting" were found guilty last week. The alleged crime took place during a demonstration at Voorhees College in nearby Denmark in April of last year. Two of the students were sentenced to two years in jail, the others to 18 months.

Pollution Bills Pollute

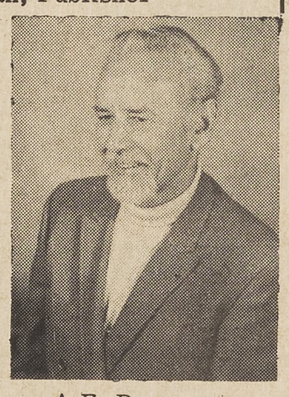
SACRAMENTO - Assemblyman John J. Miller (D, Berkeley) in referring to Assembly Ecology Day (July 17) said that the occasion suffered from "a pollution of ineffective environmental bills." He charged that "Republicans have gutted or killed many important conservation bills" and that "there was little to offer in the bills which survived committee actions."

Offers More Good Suggestions

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Congressman Jerome Waldie (D, California) this week wrote to Speaker of the House John McCormack supporting the latter's decision to authorize the display in the Capitol of a replica of a North Vietnamese prisoner cage. In his letter, Waldie also urged authorization of "display of replicas of migrant worker quarters, a ghetto slum apartment and an Indian Reservation habitation."

Publisher's Report
Seaside Ripples

A.E. 'Andy' Barragan, Publisher



A.E. Barragan

The sun has been shining the last four or five days here in Seaside and it is getting harder and harder to resist the call of the Sea and the Surf. I find it difficult to write of the many sad events that are taking place all around us when the Sun shines so magnificently on us all. I would like to write at all times just of bright and beautiful events, yet to do so would leave out from the knowledge of our readers some of the lessons that could be learned from reading of injustices and repressions that are taking place daily in our lives. Also I was called a "Pollyanna" once for looking on the bright side so much. It doesn't bother me though, I still look on the bright side. That is why I often read and quote Kahlil Gibran, author of "The Prophet." He was able to write of repression and injustice in such a beautiful manner that you get the meaning of the lession with such beautiful prose. For example:

"God has bestowed upon you intelligence and knowledge. Do not extinguish the lamp of Divine Grace and do not let the cadle of wiso Grace and do not let the candle of wisdom die out in the darkness of lust and error. For a wise man approaches with his torch to light up the path of mankind."

The quotation brings to mind the political campaign that is beginning to rear its ugly head. And I do mean ugly. It is ugly in its insincerity and sham. Political office holders and office seekers must think us a bunch of dolts and fools and maybe they are right, from the likes of them that gets elected. One of the most flagrant violations of public confidence was the election of Lyndon Johnson over Barry Goldwater. Johnson

Regional Sewage Plan Proposed

The Association of Monterey Bay Area Governments (AMBAG) recently accepted responsibility for a regional sewage waste collection and disposal plan. The move came as a result of increasing pressure on city governments by federal and state agencies for the development of such a plan.

According to the chairman of the state water resources board, Kerry W. Mulligan, the state no longer wants a "continuation of a proliferation of individual sewage plants on the peninsula. If the cities want federal or state aid for pollution control, they will have to agree to study a regional approach."

AMBAG has hired a consulting engineer to work with sanitation engineers in Seaside, Pacific Grove and Carmel in order to implement that study.

Seaside city councilman, Oliver Murray, who proposed that AMBAG sponsor the regional study, stated after the meeting, "The time has come to make physical moves and we have to find some way to solidify our efforts. It is up to the cities to move towards a joint agreement that will reinstate life in Monterey Bay."

New Bill May Ease Pollution

The problem of water pollution facing the communities located on Monterey Bay are not confined to Monterey Bay alone, according to Assemblyman Bob Wood. The problem is state wide for many communities are now using the ocean, rivers and lakes for sewage dumping purposes without adequate prior treatment. The State's efforts to combat water and air pollution in California, he said, were one step closer this week following the Governor's signature on a bill to put a $250 million "clean water" bond issue on next November's ballot for voter approval.

If the electorate approves this bond issue, then communities throughout the State will be able to significantly speed up their efforts to end water pollution by upgrading municipal sewage treatment systems so that they conform with the stringent water quality laws that the State Water Quality Resources Board has already enacted, according to Wood.

This proposed bond issue is to provide financial assistance to local communities that are desperately in need of new waste collection and water treatment facilities, Wood added. However, the cities will be required to put up 20% of the money. The federal government will provide 55% and the State will add another 25%.

In order to make the new funding formula work, however, the voters must agree that the State will provide its 25% of the funds. The $250 million in general obligation bonds would be sold over the next five years at the rate of about $50 million a year.

Federal matching funds are available to local communities. Back in 1966, Congress passed the Clean Water Restoration Act to authorize a stepped-up program of federal assistance for the construction of water treatment plants.

Under the federal act, the government pays 30% of a project's cost. However, if certain conditions are met on water control standards, and the State participates in the program, the federal government will pay up to 55% of construction costs. The State's share would be 25% leaving only the 20% to be financed at the local level.

At the present time, cities throughout the state are hard-put to keep up with a burgeoning population growth and are desperately looking for financial assistance to

Women's League Answers Charges

At last week's Seaside City Council meeting, Mrs. Corey Miller had a chance to answer charges leveled against two anti-war groups involved in the city's controversial Independence Day Parade.

At the July 27 council meeting, George Givіden, a member of the Monterey Peninsula Unified School Board, cited a series of reports, pamphlets, and other documents to support his claim that the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom and the activities of the Veteran's for Peace are connected with an international Communist conspiracy.

Mrs. Miller, a member of the local chapter of the Women's League, in an effort to refute the charges, recalled the history of her organization since its founding at the Hague in 1915.

She said that the women meeting at that time were appalled by the horrors of the world war and wished to work toward putting an end to such horror.

Mrs. Miller pointed out that the only two American women to receive the Nobel Prize for Peace -- Jane Addams and Emily Balch--had been active members in the league.

She finished her rebuttal by adding, "We are dedicated to the fact that peace is a prerequisite for our survival. It is appro-private for use to reflect on the destruction that was visited of Hiroshima 25 years ago and to remember that there are thousands of missiles with warheads in each carrying a thousand Hiroshimas, poised and waiting, today."

The rebuttal is expected to be the final gun in a debate before the council which spanned the entire month of July.

School Funds Increased

California congressman Burt L. Talcott expressed gratification over passage of the Conference Report on the Education Appropriations by the House and the Senate.

Talcott said these appropriations include increased funds for Federally impacted school districts in the 12th Congressional District.

According to HEW estimates given Mr. Talcott, entitlements for impacted

Workshop For Handicapped Needs Support

The Salinas Valley Workship, a non-profit organization, consists of a fifteen member Board of Directors representing different faucets of life, but with one common interest - the training of the handicapped of the County.

The federal government has approved a grant for the operation of a facility for the training of the multi-handicapped. Approximately $4,000 is still needed to complete the matching funds necessary to receive $80,000 from federal and state participation.

Most of the contributions have come from the Salinas-Castroville area and more support from South County (Monterey) and the Peninsula is needed. This has not been possible because of the Workshop's limited outreach on a personal contact basis.

The city of Salinas has donated, rent free, the use of a building to house the Workshop, which meets the specifications of the grant. This is a three to five year lease. Another building, located on 549 E. Market, Salinas, has been donated by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clausen. It is to be utilized for raising funds and as training facility for the multihandicapped. Facilities are scheduled to open between September 1 and October 1. Applications may be made for the directorship by uniting to: Salinas Valley Workshop, PO Box 86, Salinas, Calif. 93901. The initial staff covered by the grant is composed of a Director, Sec- Bookkeeper, Rehabilitation Cordinator, production Supervisor, and two shop supensions.

SAVO (Salinas - Alisal Neighborhood Organization) will sponsor a barbecue for the benefit of the Salinas Valley Workshop, Aug. 16, 12 noon to 8 p.m. The chef will be Margarito Torres. Live music for a dance will be furnished by the Conjunto Salinas. It will be at the possee grands. The public is invited.

Willie Brown To Appear At Seaside

Willie Brown, San Francisco Assemblyman, will appear at a pizza party Sunday August 16, at the Pizza Pub, 1646 Fremont Street, Seaside. The party, which will be from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m., will feature pizza, beer and soft drinks.

Catherine Giarratana, Monterey County Democratic Registration Chairman, announced that proceeds from the party will go to finance the Democratic Voter Registration Drive. Donation is $3.00 per person, and tickets may be purchased at the door, as well as at Democratic Headquarters, 2317 Fremont Street or at the Democratic Booth at the Monterey County Fair.

Who Cares

by Mel Vercoe

"Go ahead, Mr. McGrath, rebut me." The Mayor was magnificent again at the city council meeting last week, but a Seaside resident by the name of Harris stole the show.

The Seaside Police Department had tagged and caused the towing away of a truck that Mr. Harris had purchased. It had been parked on private property so that it could be placed in running condition, but it was towed to a wrecking yard near Watsonville, and would cost perhaps $200 in towing and storage charges if Mr. Harris wanted it back.

Mr. Harris produced a copy of the California Vehicle Code and brought out, point by point, some very explicit requirements of the state law that were quite possibly not met fully by the Seaside Police Department action, and which

Wood Opposes Oil Drilling

Assemblyman Bob Wood of Monterey County, along with 5 other Republicans representing coastal counties, supported a bill sponsored by Jess Unruh that would prehibit oil and gas drilling operation constituted an ultra- if the State Lands Commission found that such a drilling operation constituted an ultrahazardous activity.

Assemblyman Wood stated that "in spite of the bipartisan support from members of both parties, the bill failed by 1 vote of having the required 41 vote majority."

The bill which died on the Assembly floor, would have prohibited drilling in the Santa Barbara Channel area after April 1, 1971, because of the ultrahazardous conditions within the Channel.

This bill cleared earlier the Assembly Natural Resources Committee where Wood supported the measure.

The Assemblyman went on to state that "because of the passage of the Grunsky-Wood Act of 1969, prohibiting all drilling and leasing in Monterey and Santa Cruz Counties coastal tidelands, the defeat or passage of the bill would have no effect on our area."

Local Youth Employment Rises

Although there has been a slowdown nationally in the economy, local employers have made an effort to provide jobs for local youth. During the past seven months (January thru July) the following accomplishments have been made by the Student Employment Service of the Monterey Peninsula:

782 total job openings filled by local students
961 total job openings received
1400 total local students registered summer jobs
70% job openings filled were permanent summer jobs

Black Arts Activities Announced

Afro-American Week, a festival of the black arts, organized as part of the year long Monterey Bicentennial celebration, has announced its program of music, dance and drama for the week of August 17 to 23.

Three major entertainment programs will dominate the week-long event. Minimum admissions are charged to help defray the cost of talent.

The first program will be held Thursday, August 20. The Liberators, a black dance-theater group under the direction of Dolores Cayou and Ray Sawyer, will present a program on "the black heritage." It will be held in drama theater at Monterey Peninsula College. The show will start at 8 p.m.

The following evening at 7 p.m., the Grass Root, Experience, a black theater company, will present "Day of Absence," a satirical story of a mythical Mississippi town. The play, which is directed by John Doyle, founder of the company, will be held in the Carmel Sunset Auditorium.

Saturday, August 22, Earl "Fatha" Hines will appear in concert at the Monterey Peninsula College Gymnasium at 8 p.m. Frequently referred to as "the father of modern jazz piano," Hines will share the program with the John Handy Ensemble, led by alto saxophonist John Handy III.

Many other events are scheduled for Afro-American week. There will be an address by Dr. John Akar, the ambassador to the United States from Sierra Leone. On Tuesday, August 18, there will be a traditional fish fry, which will feature a street dance.

The final event for the week's activities will be an afternoon gospel program from 2 to 5 p.m., Sunday, August 23 at Martin Luther King Junior High School in Seaside.

More information about Afro-American Week may be obtained from the Old Monterey Bicentennial Office, 539 Hartnell, Monterey. The phone number at the office is 372-1970.

Faces Around The Bay ...

Raymond G. Stepniak, who has been General Manager of the MBS Discount Center in Seaside since 1967, has been appointed a vice president of MBS Associates, Inc., the parent company, it was announced by Ira Nagel, the company president. The appointment became effective August 1.

As General Manager, Mr. Stepniak will continue with his present duties at MBS, which include the supervision of merchandising for the homewares, appliances, paint and hardware departments. Before joining MBS, he was general manager for W.R. Wallace Company in San Jose and earlier was sales manager for Adren Farms in San Joaquin Valley. Mr. Stepniak, in addition to his work in retailng, has conducted sales and management training sessions in several cities. He majored in Business Administration at Cass Tech and is a member of the Royal Order of Moose, Monterey Lodge 876.

"BI-CENTENNIAL - AFRO - AMERICAN WEEK"

THE POST GOES TO CHURCH

BY Rev. McKinney

Bayard Rystin, in an article entitled, "From Protest to Policitcs," wrote that "the problems of the blacks cannot be solved by granting them even the fullest of civil rights, for it is their fundamental social and economic conditions, more than their legal privileges, which must be changed. Such changes, in the magnitudes necessary, require radical--indeed, revolutionary--programs in education, housing and income redistribution. These programs, in turn, will be attained only by an organized radical political coalition of blacks, including the Black church."

It has been easier for all other ethnic groups in America to consolidate politically in their struggle to get into the mainstream of society and culture because they were not opposed for reasons of COLOR.

It was easy for white ethnic groups to melt in the "melting pot," for no one could identify them on the basis of skin color. So the black man's color has posed a problem for white America.

Consequently, we blacks must take what white America views as a problem and turn it into a strong, invigorating force of a "troublesome presence" for the whites. The problem must be turned into a force of liberation and full equality for us who are a part of black humanity.

We have demonstrated our grievances in physical ways. We have marched and burned, but white America was not too disturbed. Neither violence nor non-violence on the part of blacks has brought about desired results or needed changes.

But there is one language that white America understands when spoken by the black community. That is the language of "black politics." Politics is where it is at.

Blacks in Seaside will change their economic status only by functioning through an organized political coalition. We have got to hit the "Man" where it hurts most and that is at the polls with ballots.

The bullet may frighten him but he has more bullets than we have. To go up against him with physical force is like running out to head off an army tank with a bb gun.

There is no room for "house niggers" in the black community; there is no place fo handkerchief heads" in the black community and there is no place for "Toms" in the contemporary urban black community.

There is only room for those who realize they are Americans by nationality but African by humanity. There is only room for those who realize that no people will be able to place dignity upon themselves before the same is conferred upon their humanity.

Brethren and sisters let us not get uptight on matters of methodology or techniques. The important thing is becoming a political reality that will bring about the needed changes.

HATS ARE IN RING

American priests are jumping on the political bandwagon in increasing numbers. Four priests are currently seeking seats in Congress and another has stated that he may run for governor. Seven priests and two nuns have already won in local elections and at least two former priests have signified intention to run for political office.

Seaside Girl To Perform At Fair

Kim Eagan, 13-year-old acrobatic dancer from Seaside, has another return engagement at Monterey County Fair.

The fair which opened Wednesday on the Monterey fairgrounds has a five-day run.

This will be Kim's eighth appearance on the outdoor stage at the fair. She first appeared there when she won the talent contest and was crowned junior queen at the age of seven.

She is featured with two dance groups in two fairgrounds shows. At 3 p.m. Saturday she appears with the Marjorie Jenks Starliners of San Jose. At 1 p.m. Sunday she is featured with the Pam and Debbie Hicks Dancers, also of San Jose.

In her years as a contortionist and acrobatic dancer, Kim has appeared at fairs throughout California, has entertained in USO shows and has performed in shows at some of the state's correctional facilities.

Kim will be an eighth grader at Martin Luther King junior high school in Seaside when school opens in the fall. When she's not studying, rehearsing or making a dancing appearance she plays the clarinet for relaxation.

Legionnaires voiced a special thanks to Orencio Perez, Vince Papalardo and Dale Anderson for the musical entertainment they supplied.

Santa Cruz Plans Big Fair Days

The coming Santa Cruz County Fair will be one big Santa Cruz County Day -- all five days of it.

Special events director Ed Pio and fair manager Sam Spina recently outlined a plan to the county supervisors for countywide participation in the coming event, which will be held September 16 through 20. The supervisors were then signed as participants in the plan.

The two fair officials explained the fair is a showcase for Santa Cruz County products and services, but heretofore it has sometimes overlooked a very important facet -- the county's people. That is what they plan to change this year, Spina and Pio said.

As a showcase for county people, Pio proposed a giant fiveday talent show, to be presented each evening on the stage at the main grandstand. Entertainers must be "home talent," drawn only from the supervisorial district which is the sponsor for that day's program.

The show, "County Capers," is to be staged under the direction of each supervisor on his "day" at the fair. Pio suggested a committee be appointed to handle the mechanics of the production, but urged supervisors to be masters-of-ceremony on their day.

The show will be judged by out-of-county judges. The winning district will receive a perpetual trophy engraved with their name on it.

Principal criteria for judging the show will be entertainment value and audience response, Pio said.

The shows will be produced daily from 7 to 8 p.m., except on Sunday, when show-time is from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.

Another special event at the fair will be the county-wide apple pie baking contest. The pie contest, co-sponsored by the California Apple Advisory Board, spotlights apples, the county's principal agricultural product.

Cooks have until August 31 to return their entry blanks for the baking contest. Rules and entry forms are available now at the administration office at the fairgrounds.

Local Youths Win More Rifle Honors

Michele Kotas, 16 and Allan Zachary 16, members of the Fort Ord Junior Rifle Club, recently added more honors to their already bright collection. They won Expert Qualification medals from the National Rifle Association and presentation was made for the NRA by Captain Gerald A Melsheimer Jr., the Club's director.

Next to the Distinguished Expert award, the Expert medals are the highest which can be earned by a Junior member, according to Staff Sergeant Richard Rawlings, club instructor and coach.

Michele, daughter of Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. Nicholas Kotas, started shooting in November of 1969 here at Fort Ord. She took second place silver medal in December 1969 and at an All-Prone Match held in San Leandro.

In February 1970, at Sharp Park in San Francisco, Michele was one of four girls on the Fort Ord Junior Rifle Club Team who won first place in an All Prone match. She received the Expert Marksman Qualification for compiling a score of 480 x 500 from a standing position. This will be her last shooting with the Fort Ord Junior group, since she departs for Hawaii soon with the reassignment of her father to a Post there.

Allan is the son of Master Sergeant and Mrs. Ted L. Zachary and joined the Fort Ord Junior Rifle Club in September of 1969. He had participated in six rifle matches conducted by the Northern California Junior Rifle League. He earned his Expert Marksman Qualification by compiling a 442 x 500 score from the standing position.

The Club is sponsored by the Army Combat Developments Command Experimentation Command (CDCEC) at Fort Ord, its director, Captain Melsheimer and their coach, Staff Sergeant Rawlings are both assigned to CDCEC. The CDCEC-sponsored club was organized to teach skillful and intelligent use of firearms with the emphasis on safety and sportsmanship.

Water Safety Is Important

"Drowning is the 4th leading cause of all accidental deaths," Dr. Fraser, of the Monterey County Health Department, says. "It is only surpassed by deaths from motor vehicles, falls and fires."

With more than 50,000 new swimming pools being constructed each year and thousands of boats crowding lakes and rivers around the country, it is easy to see that more water accidents are occurring than ever before.

"It has been estimated that as many as 7,000 persons die each year from accidental drownings. Most victims are teenagers and young adults," Dr. Fraser says.

The doctor lists a number of easy-to-follow rules which could help to avoid drownings.

* Learn to swim well at an early age.
* Never swim when overheated or exhausted.
* Know your limitations--how far you can swim.
* Always swim with a companion. On long distances, arrange for someone in a boat to accompany you.
* Swim in safe places. The presence of lifeguards usually indicates the area is safe.
* If you get a crimp while swimming, do not panic. Stretch the affected muscles at the first sign of the cramp. Try to relax and change your stroke.
* Never swim at night in unlighted areas.
* Do not be too proud to call for help if you find yourself in trouble.

Wait at least an hour after eating before going into the water.

* Do not swim until several hours have elapsed after drinking or taking medicine.

If you have recently joined the nation's 40 million boating enthusiasts, you should make every effort to learn some of the finer points of handling your craft.

It is well to remember to:

* Check your fuel supply and make sure you have enough fuel for a round trip.

Store all gear properly. Carry livesaving equipment for every person aboard. Wear lifejackets.

* Do not overload. (Overloading is one of the most common causes of boating accidents.)
* Always practice good boating manners with other boaters and observe the rules of the waterways.
* Always check the weather before setting out on a trip and keep a close watch on weather conditions as you go.

professed one philosophy and Goldwater an almost diametrically opposed philosophy and so it went throughout the campaign.

As soon as Johnson had been installed in office he adopted the Goldwater campaign promises and carried them out even better than Goldwater could have because Johnson had the help of his old cronies in the House and Senate.

We are being treated to another example of the leopard chaning its spots right here in California in our gubernatorial election campaign. We see Governor Ronald Reagan, certainly no great friend of the masses and working class, lamenting (with crocodile tears) the high rate of unemployment here in California. Reagan is pleading with the Federal Government and President Nixon to loosen up with some of the Highway funds that they tied up over a year ago in the name of "fighting inflation." All of a sudden Reagan is the champion of the unemployed. Or is he merely making a play for the votes of the "hard hats" that work in the construction industry. He didn't seem too concerned at th time that the funds were cut. As I recall he did some freezing of his own in Sacramento on building funds that were sorely needed to build State facilities, again in the name of "fighting inflation." This is what I meant earlier about the insincerity and sham of politicians.

Next, we have the spectacle of Democratic gubernatorial aspirant Jess Unruh. Jess has always professed to be the savior of the oppressed, the meek and the poor. He is foursuqare for exposure of the financial assets of officeholders and commissioners. He is for democracy and freedom at all times, until...it might help him to get votes by adopting his opponent's line of "strict Law and Order." Unruh made a speech at Stanford University this week deploring the actions of militant students on the campuses. He even went to far as to suggest that students involved in militant activities should be expelled from the university and so on and on.

Now why would Jess, who is a friend of the students and their liberal professors make such a "hard line" statement as "to the expulsion of students for their militant activities." Well, do you want to know why...in the first place most students can't vote this year; and...most voters are fed up with the unrest in our schools and colleges and good old Ronnie is making points all the way with the voters with his "hard line" talk of law and order. So good old Jess has to adopt that line which will get him the most votes just as Ronnie is now the savior of the working class.

Ah, politics, what a sham and a waste of the public's time and money.

Seaside High Plans Reunion

Seaside High School's first graduating class of 1965 is holding their five-year class reunion on Saturday, August 22nd, at the Monterey Bay Inn located at the mouth of Carmel Valley.

The festivities will include dinner, some impromptu speech making, dancing to the music of the 87th Off-Broadway band, and a showing of some movie picture footage taken during that very first senior all-night party of 1965.

All graduates interested in attending either the dinner and/or dance should contact Jeanette Bautista at 394-0506 or 372-3617 for reservations.

The final deadline for reservations is August 10th.

LAW IN ACTION

WEIGHING EVIDENCE

Our legal system has nearly always presumed innocence. To convict a person accused of a crime the jury must reach a unanimous verdict based on proof "beyond a reasonable doubt and to a moral certainty." "Moral" certainty means a "near" certainty.

Why? Because life and liberty rank so high in our value scale.

In a civil suit over property, in contrast, any nine of twelve jurors can agree on a verdict. Civil actions call only for a "preponderance of the evidence" to win one party a victory. "Preponderance" is just enough evidence to satisfy the jury that one side has offered more convincing evidence than the other.

In contrast, if there is a reasonable doubt, the criminal law gives the accused the benefit of the doubt and the right to an acquittal. In such a case the law presumes innocence which would outweigh the evidence of guilt based on mere preponderance.

For years actions in the juvenile court have been considered "civil," not criminal. A youngster accused of acts which for an adult would be a crime escapes the taint of a criminal record. Hence the law required only a "preponderance" of the evidence for the youngster to become a ward of the court.

But recently the U.S. Supreme Court declared this improper: A twelve-year-old boy had been before a juvenile court charged with stealing $112 from a purse. Though disputed, a "preponderance of evidence" of his guilt was found by the judge, who sent the boy to a youth camp until he was eighteen.

The boy's lawyer appealed his case to the Supreme Court, which ruled that no judge could sentence a boy on mere preponderance of the evidence. Proof would have to be "beyond a reasonable doubt" to a near certainty.

Once declared a ward, the juvenile court could sentence a youngster for long periods of time, put him on probation, and give him the stigma of a "juvenile offender." Therefore, the Supreme Court held, he has a right to an attorney and to all the other rights accorded an accused adult.

Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws

Here in our own city council of Seaside, we see five, otherwise intelligent, men and women trying to settle some very serious disputes and letting "politics" determine their decisions. Fortunately politics is also the game of "Compromise," and sooner or later both sides of the disputes are going to have to compromise their respective hard positions to a give and take position. I happen to agree with most of the positions taken by the majority of the council, that is why I supported their election. On the other hand the business of the city has to progress and some compromise is due. I think that most of the giving has to come from Mayor Lou Haddad, and it is no great thing for him to give, after all he has the excuse that he is outvoted by 4 to 1. His supporters cannot hold him to his "hard line" forever, since the city work has to go on. And also if Haddad is to lead the Republican party to victory at the polls next November on behalf of Ronald Reagan's campaign, he will have to win over some democratic voters in Seaside, and you can't do that, Lou, by being so hard-headed.

Compromise man, compromise.

So much this week on politics. We will be expounding quite often I'm afraid on this ugly subject in the next month or two. We will try to be a little "Pollyannish" though in our approach from now on.

More Helpful Hints From PG&E:

Five handy tips on household safety.

A Little Dirt or Lint can cause trouble. So make sure that burners and controls on your gas furnace, wall or floor heater are clean at all times. And clean or replace dirty furnace filters periodically.

Remember
to replace broken or frayed electric cords. Make sure all electric tools are properly grounded. Never put too many appliances on one outlet. Disconnect small appliance cords by pulling plug first from outlet and always discourage youngsters from tampering with cords or outlets.

Get Rid Of
rusted or loose fitting vent and flue pipes. Have them checked annually. And if you suspect a gas leak, CALL PG&E IMMEDIATELY.

Once A Year
have your gas appliances thoroughly checked by your furnace man or plumber. While he's there he should make sure safety pilots are operating properly, air openings on burners are clean and burners set for a blue flame.

It's Up To You
to practice good home safety habits. Don't place furniture or draperies over floor furnaces. Don't let gas accumulate before lighting a burner manually. And always make sure the burners on your range are off completely when not in use.

PG&E Is Ready To Help
If you call for a PG&E service man to check out any gas leak or inoperative gas appliance, ask him to show you where your gas pilots are located and how to go about relighting them. If repairs or parts are ever required for an appliance, call an appliance or furnace service man or your plumber.

Grooving Around The Peninsula
with Betty Mann

Hi There Fellow Peninsulans.

Happenings around town last week were at Nepenthe's Restaurant in Big Sur. On Wednesday afternoon August 5, mesdames Charlie Knight, Marion Woodie, Mary Ellen Harris, Frederica Evans, Bertha Hutchins and Betty Mann, hosted Mrs. Henry T. Hutchins Sr., of New York City for cocktails and lunch at Nepenthe's. Mrs. Hutchins was here on the pensinsula visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Henry T. Hutchins, Jr. of Del Rey Oaks. The party of seven lively ladies spent a delightful afternoon chatting over cocktails and enjoying Nepenthe's delicious luncheon speciality, ambrosia burger, will all the delectable trimmings. This is indeed a treat and a meal in itself.

The highlight of the afternoon was the Bohemian Fashion-Show that is held every Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. on the terrace of this fascinating restaurant. The terrace sits on the edge of a mountainous cliff overlooking the awesome and breathtakingly beautiful Pacific Ocean. On the other side of the terrace is a serene and lush looking pine forest with thousands of trees. The fashion show consisted of a group of young men and women who gave their audience a climpseof glimpse of the "new now" fashions? (smile) Long peasant dresses, old fashioned high laced and buttoned boots made on think of seeing these same fashions on tv's Wagon Train. Accompanying one of these long peasant dresses was a new added accessory--a garden rake! One lovely, long black cotton granny dress that was modeled as an evening gown--complete with an old antique beaded bag that my granny might have carried--cost $115, $90 for the gown and $25 for the bag. Wow! This outfit was worn by a very strikingly beautiful black model from Fort Ord, Mrs. Nan Drake, who by the way was the favorite model of the entire crowd. This beautiful and charming young lady possesses a beautiful smile, pose and great style. Everytime she entered the terrace looking like a beautiful brown African queen the huge crowd gave her a very special applause.

One long haired hippie-type male received a lot of attention from the outfit he was wearing--a plain blue velour shirt with a $3000 beaded hippie belt around his waist. (Don't let these hippies fool you, all of them are not poor) (Smiles) If you could see some of the prices on the clothes some of them buy and wear, wow!

After viewing all of these way-out fashions yours truly ventured out into the backyard behind the corral (smile) where the models were dressing to indulge in a little chit-chat. I was told that some of the models had been professional mannequins, but were now living in Big Sur as residents and working in different jobs as waitresses and salesladies in the boutiques and serving in other capacities at Nepenthe. I think Nan Drake is the only model that lives on the peninsula and commutes to Big Sur for the show every Wednesday afternoon. Some of the models design and model their own clothes for the show.

After a delightful afternoon that was enjoyed by all seven ladies, we were prepared for the breathtaking ride back to the peninsula and I do mean breathtaking--curves, bends and etc. that is a part of the highway leading to Big Sur, but our accomplished Driver, Charlie Knight, proved to be a capable and trustworthy driver. Charlie had taken to the highway as if she had practiced as an obstacle course driver. Heh heh!

Other forthcoming happenings for you Peninsulans to be constantly reminded of is the Afro-American Bicentennial, that begins August 17. Are you getting those daishikis and bubas together? Remember to all of you peninsulans, you don't have to be black to wear a daishiki and join in on the fun. We want everyone in the community to be a "part of us." Now don't forget the Tuesday night shindig, of which Helyn Mitchel is chairman. There will be on this night four bands playing one hour each. Contributing their time are the English Souls, the 87th Off-Broadway, the King-Taylor Conspiracy, with the Pure Essence and the Fabulous Capris. All of this will take place Tuesday night, August 18 beginning at 6 p.m. at the Custom House Plaza on the wharf across from Alvarado Street. In Monterey, fish sandwiches, pigs-feet, chicken sandwiches and other soul foods will be offered. There will be kegs of wine and beer to be sold "only" to persons over 21 years old! Sodas will be offered to the younger set.

AFRO-AMERICAN WEEK: August 17-23

Afro-American Week is under the distinguished patronage of Dr. John J. Akar, Ambassador to U.S. from Sierra Leone; Willie Brown, state assemblyman from San Francisco and Bill Breene, state assemblyman from Los Angeles. Sponsored by the Afro-American community of Monterey County, chairman of Afro-American Week is Joseph R. Walton, and his committee consists of Mrs. Helyn Mitchell, Mrs. Willie E. Williams, Lt. Col. Charles Drummond and Mr. C. Coleman.

African and Afro-American art exhibits will be held at Pacific Grove Art Center and Seaside City Hall Gallery with the help of Mrs. E.J. Montgomery and Commissioner Tom Webb.

Laws on Beverages Explained by CHP

It is unlawful to drink alcohol in any vehicle upon any street or highway in California or to have an opened container of alcoholic beverage in the passenger section of the vehicle or in the glove compartment, warns Captain W.J. Bradshaw of the California Highway Patrol.

The only exceptions to these requirements of the Vehicle Code are that passengers in taxis, buses or the living quarters of a housecar or camper may possess and drink intoxicating beverages.

A bottle of an alcoholic beverage on which the seal has been broken must be kept in the trunk of the vehicle, provided the vehicle has a trunk.

On such vehicles as station wagons, the bottles must be stowed in an area not occupied by passengers.

It is illegal, of course, to drink from pocket flasks, beer cans or glasses of alcoholic beverages carried home from a bar or party while in a motor vehicle on a public street.

It is illegal to have a pocket flask, on which the seal has been broken, in one's possession in the vehicle.

For minors, prohibitions are even more stringent than for adults. Those under 21 years may not have alcoholic beverages in their possession in a vehicle, even if the seal is not broken. A closed six-pack of beer, for instance, is unlawful, if transported by a driver under 21 years of age in the passenger area of the vehicle. A minor in violation of this law may have his vehicle impounded if he is the registered owner. He may also have his driving license suspended for 15 to 30 days.

Thousands of drivers whose ability is impaired by alcohol are involved in fatal and injury accidents each year. The most frequent violations leading to these accidents are exceeding the safe speed, failing to grant the right of way to other vehicles, driving on the wrong side of the road, and, disregarding stop lights and signs--all evidence of impaired judgment according to Captain Bradshaw.

"The law against partying on the road is a good one," he said. "When an officer arrests a driver for having an opened container of alcoholic liquor in the car, he may be saving the lives of the driver and his passengers.

Square Dancers

Sauare Dancers from around California are planning to attend the big event for 1970. The Seventh Annual Square Affair, in San Luis Obispo, on September 5th and 6th. This big two day affair is sponsored by the Central Coast Square Dancers and the Central Coast Callers Associations.

Many of the top callers of California are planning their part in the program, already and the preregistration looks toward a large turnout.

Last year, attendance was well in the excess of 1,500 dancers and spectators and this year, we are hoping for even greater crowds.

Workshops are planned for those wishing to learn the newer figures. Square Dance Workshops are planned for Saturday morning, with programmed dancing on Saturday afternoon and evening also on Sunday afternoon and evening.

Round dance workshops, are planned for Saturday afternoon and Sunday afternoon at the Monday Club, just across the street from all the happenings at the Veterans Memorial Building.

Sunday morning, at the Monday, a Square Dancers Style Show and a continental breakfast . At the Veterans Memorial Building, a whopping schedule featuring the top callers, calling "Challange Dancing".

Preregistration is being handled by THE ROCKING SQUARES, P.O. Box 299, Lompoc Calif., 93436. Housing, Camper and Trailer information may be had by contacting the Curly Qs, P.O. Box 2127, Orcutt, Calif., 93454.

could prove very, very interesting if Mr. Harris can prove in court that he is correct, and if some other vehicle owners decide they would like compensation for towed-away vehicles.

Whatever Mr. Harris' occupation before he retired, he should have been an attorney. He would have been a dandy. At any rate, Mayor Haddad explained that the city was not in a position to pay for bringing the truck back to Seaside unless legally required by court to do so, and he offered to take Mr. Harris to the Legal Aid office the following day.

The meeting lasted four hours, about two hours too long for the softness of the cushions on the seats in the Council chambers.

One citizen made a suggestion that perhaps once a month a town hall type meeting could be held that would permit residents to hash out issues without taking up council meeting time. This would be, in my personal opinion, a real step forward. There would be no cost, there would be much to gain, and nothing to lose.

Some discussion was given to the practice of limiting oral communications before the council to three minutes while allowing written communications to take up any length of time. The prime example was the recent George Gividen statement that he read to the council for some 20 to 25 minutes. Somebody should point out to the council that an oral communication does not become a written communication just because the writer reads it to the council. A speech is a speech, whether the speaker uses notes or does not use notes, and if it is read verbatim, it is then a "read speech".

May I suggest that all written communications be limited as to length to qualify being read before the council, and that they be read by a council member or by the clerk, not by the writer.

Mission to Celebrate Serra's Day

Padre Junipero Serra, Franciscan founder of the Old Missions of California, will be honored with special ceremonies on Sunday, August 16, at Old Missions San Antonio, near the town of Jolon.

"Junipero Serra Day" will be observed by the Franciscan padres of the Old Mission. The public is cordially invited. A special comemoratibe Mass will be celebrated at 10:00 a.m., in the mission church, honoring Padre Serra who founded San Antonio Mission in 1771. A special narration on the life and achievements of Serra will be given by Padre Matthew Poetzl, O.F.M., of the Old Mission.

Junipero Serra was born in Petra, on the Spanish Island of Mallorca, in 1713 and became a Franciscan at the age of 16. He volunteered for Mexico missionary service in 1749, and in 35 years as a missionary he walked an estimated 10,000 miles despite an ulcerated leg.

In 1769, Padre Serra began his greatest and most memorable work, establishing the chain of missions along the coast of California from San Diego to Sonoma which brought civilization to the primitive Indians. He died at Carmel in 1784. The 21 missions scattered along the coast are among California's most cherished landmarks.

Padre Serra established the basis of California's present day agriculture and stock-raising, while his missions were to become the sites of great coastal cities. His zeal and vision caused him to urge the exploration by sea of Alaska, and overland to New Mexico.

New Bill May Ease Pollution

upgrade their sewage plants to abate water pollution, says Wood.

He hopes passage of this bill into law will provide the vehicle for funds to accomplish this purpose and help communities, not only adjacent to Monterey Bay, but communities adjacent to the Salinas River, which might have a similar problem.

Good Month For Trucks

Ford Division dealers sold a record 69,137 trucks during June, making it the best sales month for trucks in division history, according to John B. Naughton, Ford vice president and division general manager.

Truck sales exceeded the previous best of 68,014, set in October 1969, and were 5.8 percent above the 65,312 truck sales reported in June last year.

Local Youth Employment Rises

41% job openings filled were disadvantaged students who met the economic criteria
39% job openings filled were minority students
234 job openingd provided by the Federal Government Youth Opportunity Program at the Military installations on the Monterey Peninsula
9 job openings provided under the State Agency program

Currently there are 584 local students registered and available for work. Every attempt is being made to provide jobs for them.

Since 1959, 13,580 local students have been placed under the Student Employment Service Program.

School Funds Increased

schools in the 12th District will be increased $904,000.

The revised impacted aid formula in this year's appropriations contain the following provisions:

First; 100 percent of entitlement for "A" children in hardship school districts where they represent more than 25 percent of the total enrollment.

Second. 90 percent entitlement for all other "A" children; and Third; 65 percent of entitlement for "B" children.

Commenting on the increased funding Talcott said, "while these funds will provide needed assistance for the heavily burdened local tax structure, I believe that serious study must be given to developing new methods for financing our educational system -- if we want to maintain quality education."

Record Is An Enviable One

General Motors Corporation employes are 26 times safer at work than they are away from the job. They are 11 times safer on the job than the average of all industries.

So says the national Safety Council, whose figures show that last year GM employes posted the best safety record in the corporation's history.

An average of 99.86 percent of GM's employes worked the entire year of 1969 without any time lost from on-the-job accidents or occupational illness. In doing so they achieved an accident frequency rate of .69, less than one accident per million man hours worked. A million man hours would be the equivalent of 500 persons working a normal work year.

This record recently earned GM the National Safety Council's Award of Honor for the 21st time in 28 years.

HOME IS WHERE
THOSE BUFFALO ROAM

Conservation-minded land developers in the Southwest have a new gimmick -- buffalo in your backyard. They hope to "people" some 3,100 acres near Los Angeles in tune with what they claim is a commitment to "environmental conservation." They are setting aside a grazing area for a small herd of buffalo.

Local Airman Earns Honors

U.S. Air Force Captain Roger P. Busico, son of Mrs. Mary S. Busico of Pacific Grove, Calif., has received his second through seventh awards of the Air Medal at Moody AFB, Ga., for air action in Southeast Asia.

Captain Busico was cited for his outstanding airmanship and courage on successful and important missions completed under hazardous conditions.

He is now at Moody with the 3552nd Pilot Training Squadron as an instructor pilot.

The captain, a 1962 graduate of Pacific Grove High School, received his B.A. degree in 1966 from Whittier (Calif.) College and was commissioned in 1967 upon completion of Officer Training School at Lackland AFB, Tex.

His wife is the former Susanna M. Wade. Captain Busico's father, Tony Busico, also resides in Pacific Grove.

SAM RAN

During nighttime filming at the Van Nuys Airport near Los Angeles, a scene was almost ruined when a plane taxied into camera range behind title role star Burt Reynolds. An irate assistant director yelled at the sole descending passenger who ducked out of sight. When he emerged, the red-faced assistant found himself face to face with Los Angeles' peripatetic mayor, Sam Yorty.

TRAINING HARD - Harold J. Camacho Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Camacho Sr. of Seaside, is participating in United S ticipating in United States Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC) field training encampment at Forbes Air Force Base, Kansas.

During the encampment, Camacho, who is member of AFROTC unit at San Diego State College, will become familiar with life activities on Air Force bases and can examine career opportunities in which he might wish to serve.

Artist Retires

A very talented gentleman has retired from the civil service.

He is Maynard Finch who has just completed eighteen years in the service and who leaves his final position, that of illustrator and supervisor of the Graphics Section of the Army Combat Developments Command Experimentation Command (CDCEC) at Fort Ord, California.

As head of his section, he has been responsible for many technical and beautiful art pieces for the command, including some of the murals on the walls of the famous Hacienda at CDCEC's field laboratory on Hunter Liggett.

Finch has been with CDCEC for the past four years and held a similar position at Fort Ord for six years previous to that. He also served some time in the US Navy during his years of service to the government.

Although Los Angeles is Finch's birthplace and the University of California at Los Angeles his Alma Mater, he considers the Monterey Peninsula his home. He has lived in Carmel, Pacific Grove and Monterey during his years in the area before he and his wife Ina chose their permanent home in Marina.

Finch has received many official commendations during his years in civil service for his outstanding work in illustration; but one of the most unusual was a silver spur presented to him by CDCEC's Armor group for special artistic services rendered by him.

Indians At Fair

When Spanish explorers came seeking gold in fabled California 200 years ago they found a country already rich in folk lore of its native people, the Indians.

Three times daily during the coming Monterey County Fair, August 12 through 16, some of those ancient legends first heard by the Spanish explorers 200 years ago, will live again in song, music and dance on the outdoor stage at the fairgrounds.

The Bicentennial Indian Dancers, some of them native American Indians and other dancers who have spent long hours studying Indian folk history, will recreate the ancient Indian dances.
